The poultry business is fast becoming one of the leading industries of the State, and it is predicted that in a few years it will be the largest. The climatic condition in Kentucky are peculiarly favorable to the raising of turkeys and on many of the smaller farms it is the most profitable crop.

Douglas Thomas has purchased of Mrs. Samuel Smith, of Lexington, the bay yearling filly by Oakland Baron, 2:09 1/2, dam Celestia, 2:14, by Happy Medium; 2nd dam Esquimaux, by Aberdeen; 3rd dam by Almont; 4th dam by Pilot, Jr.

Though not generally known, Douglas Thomas has in his stables one of the fastest green pacers in the world. His name is Ireland, and he is by Bourbon Wilkes, dam by Cyclone. He is a bay gelding 15 1/2 hands high, very handsome, game and level-headed. He jogs on a square trot, needs nothing but quarter boots, and has paced a mile over the three-quarter farm track, which is considered at least three seconds slow, in 2:10, last half in 1:03 1/2, last quarter in 31 1/2. He will be entered in stakes through the grand circuit.

THEATRICAL AND OTHERWISE.

News and Comment of Stage Matters and Other Gossip.

Beatrice Golden, comic opera singer, is one of five heirs to an estate left last week by the death of an aunt in Aberdeen, Scotland. The estate amounts to about $2,000,000.

Manager Borland announces that Saturday night will be a big laughing night when that merry, jingling comedy, "Two Merry Tams," will be presented. This play has positively made more people forget their troubles for an evening and created more genuine laughter than any of the farce comedies of late years. The author claims a plot for the play, but when asked to define it, explains it to be a plot upon the part of the comedians to convulse the audience with laughter, and while hilarity sometimes proves fatal, it seldom occurs, so that the actors are safe in continuing the conspiracy. An unusually large and capable company of comedians, singers, dancers and musicians have been engaged for this season's production. New songs, musical numbers, etc., will be introduced in quick succession during each act, and as the company carries a splendid male quartette, the musical feature will be in evidence, something always always enjoyed by all.

Whitew's superb production of "Quo Vadis" played to $100,000 in eight weeks in Chicago and to $10,000 last week to Cincinnati. The play is interpreted by a fine company and is in a very elaborate manner.

The brilliant spectacular production "Jack and the Beanstalk" will come to Lexington opera house for three performances Friday and Saturday night and Saturday matinee. This is easily the largest extravaganza on the road this season and is being presented by an exceptionally clever company.

Henry Jewett has succeeded in convincing Liebler & Co. that "The Choir Invisible" is not a dead piece of theatrical property, notwithstanding the fact that it has closed the season twice this year. The company mentioned will star Mr. Jewett in the piece next season.

Leading Kentucky Republicans Held a Conference in Frankfort
Saturday.

Gov. Taylor Issued a Proclamation
Reconvening the General Assembly at Frankfort.

Troops Ordered Home—Only a Few Companies Remain to Guard the Capitol—Courts Will Now
Settle Controversy.

Frankfort, Ky., Feb. 11.—Nearly every republican county committeeman came to Frankfort Saturday on the early morning train and also a large number of republican leaders from all parts of the state. Several republican members of the legislature were among the number, including Senators Kirk and Johnson and Representative Lewis. Shortly before 11 o'clock the doors of the capitol were opened, and the state delegations went up to the assembly room, the first time it has been opened since the shooting of Senator Goebel. The republican chairman and members of the legislature refused absolutely to talk in regard to the objects of their visit.

The assembly discussed two propositions—one that the governor sign the agreement and the other that he refuse to sign and "let the law take its course."

Judge George Denny, of Lexington, was elected chairman of the conference meeting and was loudly applauded. He declared Taylor was elected governor by the voters and should not be forced to give up.

A. M. J. Cochran, of Maysville, was the first one to come out of the conference, but he would say nothing as to what was going on inside.

There was evidently much enthusiasm in the conference. Nearly every time the door was opened cheers were heard from the outside.

Gov. Taylor has definitely decided that he will not sign the Louisville agreement. He made the declaration at 1:15 o'clock as he came from the legislative hall, in which he had all morning been in conference with the republican committeemen. He has decided to allow the matter to be settled in the courts, and will abide by their action.

The legislature will be allowed to meet in the capitol building Monday and will continue its work without further interruption. Immediately after Gov. Taylor came from the hall orders were issued to the troops to go to their homes and Col. Williams at once sent messages ordering cars to be prepared for their transportation.

The meeting was a long and excited one, opinion from the first being against signing any agreement with the democrats which might in any way be construed as a surrender of the republicans. The feeling was also general that it was needless to keep up the fight as it had been conducted during the last two weeks. It was then decided to allow the legislature to come back on Monday, to discontinue the sessions at London, and allow matters to be settled by the legal tribunals. There is no doubt that the decision of the courts and legislature will be, as both of them have already gone on record as favoring the Goebel side of the controversy.

The following resolution was passed by the meeting:

"Resolved, That it is the sense of this meeting that Gov. Taylor should not sign the agreement referred him by the Louisville conference, and that reposing confidence in his ability and sense of duty, we are content to follow his leadership after that refusal."

The resolution was passed after Gov. Taylor had left the hall and was adopted with ringing cheers. A small detachment of troops will be left around the capitol building to preserve order.

Frankfort, Ky., Feb. 11.—Saturday afternoon Gov. Taylor issued the following proclamation:

"The excitement recently prevailing in this city having to some extent subsided, and there appearing now to be no necessity for the general assembly to remain in session at London, I do hereby, by this proclamation, reconvene same in Frankfort, Ky., February 12, 1900, at 12 o'clock noon."

"W. S. TAYLOR,
Governor of Kentucky."

Louisville, Ky., Feb. 11.—The executive and legislative headquarters of the democratic state government have been established in Louisville, and the leaders assert they will be maintained here as long as necessary. The legislature has resumed its regular work, with a quorum in each house and Beckham, the democratic governor, in lieu of an executive mansion, has taken up his abode at Seelbach's hotel, surrounded by his political advisers. Most notable among these is, h. force of circumstances, Gen. John R. Castleman, the adjutant general. Upon him will devolve the duty of carrying out Beckham's purpose to protect his associates from armed interference, whether it comes from Frankfort or London, or both. Little can be learned of these defensive plans. Gen. Castleman declared no steps have been taken toward organizing a military force.

"The only purpose of the proposed military organization," said he, "is to maintain peace, and so long as there is no disturbance and civil authority rules, there will be no need for the use of military force."

The democratic legislators are not so fearful of arrest as they have been of late.

"We will not submit to arrest," said Speaker Trimble, "We know our rights and will call upon the civil authorities to protect us in our resolve to resist any attempt of republican force to take us to London or any other place."

"I fully concur with Speaker Trimble," said President Carter of the senate. "We will not be arrested. That is the shortest way to put it. Both houses will act jointly in this matter if any attempt of arrest is made and we expect the local authorities to aid us in our efforts to protect our rights. We will not go to London."

The democratic leaders say nothing more will be done by them in the matter of peace negotiations. They say they came to an agreement with seven accredited agents of the republican administration, which agreement was signed by all of the 14 conferees. The republicans, they say, gave assurances that the terms they made would be accepted by Gov. Taylor. One clause of the agreement, they say, was that things should remain in statu quo until next Monday, and the democrats regard the proceedings before the federal court at Cincinnati and Gov. Taylor's message to the London legislature advising that warrants be sworn out for the arrest of absent members as a departure from the spirit of the agreement.

The republicans now in the city who were present at the conference refuse to make any statement as to the present conditions of the conference of last Tuesday. One of them, Lieut. Gov. John Marshall, has gone to London to attend the session of the republican legislature there.

Frankfort, Ky., Feb. 11.—Gov. Taylor has not signed the peace agreement Saturday morning, and as usual declined to give any hint of his intention. The men throughout the state who have been wiring him to stand firm, and whom he invited here to talk over the situation appeared in fairly large numbers Saturday morning. About sixty of them went to the governor's office, among the number being many of the leading republican politicians from Lexington and the territory adjacent to that city. Sergeant-at-arms Howard and Cecil are expected in Frankfort from London Saturday morning with warrants for the arrest of democratic members of the legislature. It is difficult to see how they can execute their mission here, as there is not, at the present time, a single member of the legislature in or around Frankfort. Every democrat has gone to Louisville.

Secretary K. J. Hampton, of the republican state central committee, who arrived in Frankfort Saturday morning from Winchester, gives it as his opinion that the injunction proceedings at Cincinnati will have no bearing whatever on the gubernatorial situation.

"I am unable even to predict the outcome," said he, "but the republicans are confident of making a good case for both the courts and the people. I see no chance of getting the legislature together unless the democrats should be taken to London. If warrants have been issued they will be taken to Louisville at once for service."

Frankfort, Ky., Feb. 12.—The state troops, which have been on duty here for nearly two weeks, have nearly all returned home, only the soldiers from Covington, Newport, Lexington and Morgantown are camped in the Capital square. Adj. Gen. Collier said that only a few companies of infantry would be kept on duty here for a short time, to do police work around the Capital square and guard the public building. They would, he said, interfere in no way with the actions of the members of the legislature and access to the legislative hall would be as free and unrestrained as it was before Taylor issued the proclamation declaring Frankfort in a state of insurrection.

The members of the republican legislature are nearly all here. No intimidation has been received as to whether or not the democratic members of the legislature would adjourn their session at Louisville and come to Frankfort to take part in the general session. It is believed here, however, that they will do so, probably by the latter part of the week.

Plan of the Democrats.

Louisville, Ky., Feb. 12.—It is reported that the republicans will this week seek to bring the contest for the offices of governor and lieutenant governor before the federal court. Former Gov. Bradley, chief counsel for the republicans in their application before Judge Taft to restrain the state election commissioners from proceeding with the contest for the minor offices, was in town in consultation with leading republican lawyers. The case involving the minor offices comes up at Cincinnati, and it is believed the other case will also be taken before Judge Taft.

On Tuesday the application of the democrats for an injunction to restrain Taylor from interfering with the legislature will come up in the circuit court at Frankfort. The case has been continued from time to time by the democrats pending the peace negotiations. It is expected a temporary injunction will be granted. The case will then be taken to the court of appeals, the state court of last resort. Upon whether or not an appeal to the federal court will lie depends the republican hope of relief from that quarter.

The legislature will remain here at least until it has received a report from its committee which will be appointed to investigate conditions at Frankfort. From talk among the democratic members it is not believed they will return to the capital while soldiers are about the state buildings.

A receiver has been appointed for the Independent Order of Foresters of Illinois.

PIO DEL PILAR DEAD.

Leaders Disband His Army, Which is Wandering in the Hills.

Rebels in Albay, Province of Luzon,
Have Adopted Harassing Tactics
Against Towns Which Americans Have Garrisoned.

Manila, Feb. 12.—11 a. m.—A number of ex-insurgent officials arrived here yesterday. They state that Gen. Pio Del Pilar, the insurgent leader, died of fever a fortnight ago in the Morong mountains.

The leaders, after his death, held a meeting, and, seeing it would be futile to offer further resistance to the Americans, they therefore disbanded their forces, which are now wandering in small gangs in the hills.

Manila, Feb. 12.—Guerrilla warfare continues south of Manila. Two attempts have been made to ambush the Americans. Col. Schwan, while returning to Manila with his staff and an escort of 100 cavalry from Batangas, was attacked by the insurgents. The latter were dispersed, but the Americans had five men wounded.

Lieut. Col. Beacom, with six companies of the 42d infantry, had a two hours' fight with Gen. Pio del Pilar's command, which attempted to ambush the Americans along the trail through Morong province, near the lake. Here also the insurgents were dispersed, but the Americans had several wounded, among them a captain.

Gen. Bell is operating southward through Zambales province with a small force. He will soon take two regiments and a battery through the provinces of North Camarines and South Camarines, going there on transports. Many insurgents retreated to that part of the island from Cavite and Batangas provinces.

Another expedition will soon start to garrison towns along the north coast of the island of Mindanao.

It is reported that the insurgent Gen. Alejandro has recovered from his wound and has assembled a large force in that district.

Of late the insurgents in Albay, Province of Luzon, have adopted harassing tactics against the towns which the Americans have garrisoned. They camp in the hills and maintain a constant fire upon the American outposts. When the troops sally against them, they scatter, returning when the Americans retire. They shoot burning arrows, and have thus burned a large part of the town of Albay. Indeed, most of the larger towns in that province are practically deserted, except by the garrisons. Scarcely any of the inhabitants return to their homes. They are camping in the interior, and it is supposed armed insurgents prevent them going back.

It is reported that there is much suffering among them owing to lack of food. As a result of these conditions, the hemp business in that section is seriously hindered and ships going for cargoes are compelled to take gangs of Coolies to do their loading. Hemp held in the interior is quite inaccessible.

The plague continues. Eight cases were reported last week among the natives and Chinese. There is no excitement, however, and business and social life are undisturbed. Smallpox, however, is prevalent among the natives along the railroad, and in the towns on the northern coast. Two officers of the 36th infantry have died of the disease and another officer and several soldiers have been stricken.

Four Men Fatally Wounded.

Caney, Kas., Feb. 12.—Four men were perhaps fatally wounded at a dance five miles from Caney in Oklahoma territory. "Bob" and Carl Thomson attacked Joseph and James Mickles and Frank Wise with knives inflicting ugly wounds. Len Cushman interfered and Bob Thomson felled him with a blow on the head from his revolver. All four are in a critical condition. A posse is pursuing the Thomsons.

Oldest Newspaper Man Dead.

Anaconda, Mont., Feb. 10.—Beriah Brown, probably the oldest newspaper man in the west, died here, aged 84 years. Mr. Brown was born in New York state. He was an intimate friend of Horace Greeley. For half a century he was engaged in newspaper work on the Pacific coast. He was the founder of the Democratic Press of San Francisco, which afterwards became the Examiner.

Incorporated at $3,000,000.

Columbus, O., Feb. 10.—The Morgan Engineering Co. filed articles of incorporation with the secretary of state. The capital stock is placed at $3,000,000, half of which is to be preferred. The company is to manufacture and deal in hydraulic, electric, pneumatic, gas and fire machinery, including guns and ordnance. The headquarters are to be at Alliance.

Lightweight Prize Fight.

New York, Feb. 10.—Joe Gans, the Baltimore lightweight pugilist, gained a well earned decision over Spike Sullivan, of Boston, in the 14th round of a bout at the lightweight limit before the Broadway Athletic club.

Lynching in Texas.

Port Arthur, Tex., Feb. 12.—James Sweeney, white, was lynched at 1 o'clock this morning. Sweeney was a cotton screwman foreman, and had killed Charles Crumbach, a fellow laborer, by jamming a bayonet through his neck, the outcome of a saloon quarrel.

Death of an Old Indian Chief.

Perry, O. T., Feb. 12.—Bear Chief, the oldest chief of Pe-Ta-How-E-Rat and of Pawnee Indians, is dead. He was one of the most intellectual men of his tribe.

PUBLIC SCHOOLS IN CUBA.

The Number Has Increased From 200 to 2,500 Within the Last Six Weeks—Attendance 100,000.

Havana, Feb. 11.—Alexis Frye, superintendent of Cuban schools, in his report to the governor general upon the development of the school system since the work of reorganization began six weeks ago, says that the whole country seems on fire with enthusiasm for an education. The public feeling exceeds all he had ventured to hope for. Six weeks ago there existed in the island less than 200 schools, all based on the old Spanish foundations, with the exception of a few that had been established more than a year before in Santiago by Gen. Wood. There are now 2,058 schools in the island, of which 201 are in Havana city, 152 in Matanzas city, and 170 in Porto Principe city.

Thus far reports have been received from 97 municipalities, and there are 34 others to be heard from, which will probably increase the number of schools by 400. The schools that have already reported show an aggregate attendance of more than 100,000 pupils, and Dr. Frye believes that this attendance will be increased to 150,000 before June 1.

SYMPATHIZE WITH THE BOERS.

A Resolution to That Effect Passes
the Senate—The Vote Will Be Reconsidered.

Washington, Feb. 11.—At the opening of the senate Saturday Mr. Allen presented the following:

"That the United States of America extends its sympathy to the people of the South African republic in their heroic struggle for liberty and popular government, and believes it to be the duty of the government of the United States to offer mediation to the end that further bloodshed may be averted and an honorable peace may be concluded between the belligerent governments."

No objection was made to the consideration of the resolution, only about a dozen senators being present. Before anybody realized what was going on, the resolution was put to a vote and declared adopted.

Mr. Pettus (Ala.), addressing the chair, demanded the yeas and nays.

To this Mr. Allen objected, as the resolution had been adopted.

The chair agreed to this point, but asked Mr. Allen that he permit the vote to be reconsidered and let the resolution go over. To this Mr. Allen consented.

To Centralize Their Plants

Pittsburgh, Feb. 11.—Negotiations are in progress for the purchase of 100 acres of land on the Ohio river, a mile below Steubenville, O., by the American Ax and Tool Co., the purpose being to centralize the many widely scattered plants of the concern at that point. The largest plants of the company are at Beaver Falls, Pa.; Milvale, Pa.; Albany, N. Y.; Portland, Me., and East Douglass, Mass. It is also stated that the headquarters will be moved from New York to Pittsburgh as soon as the centralization of the various plants is completed.

Charred Remains Found.

Escanaba, Mich., Feb. 11.—The charred remains of what are supposed to have been the bodies of nine of the victims of the Chicago & Northwestern wreck, which occurred at Ford river switch, have been brought to this city and placed in the morgue. All but two of them were positively identified by the coroner's jury. These, with the body of Sam O. Green, of Negaunee, which was the first to be recovered, make a total of ten lives lost in the wreck.

Too Many Convicts.

Wheeling, W. Va., Feb. 11.—Warden S. A. Hawk, of the state penitentiary, is in a quandary as to what to do with his prisoners. The prison will only accommodate 700, there are within its walls 689, and nine were received from Putnam county Friday. In addition to these there will be 29 government prisoners sent to the institution from Washington, D. C., whose sentences range from 20 to 37 years.

Barrow Not Insane.

New York, Feb. 11.—Warden Johnson, of Sing Sing, said Saturday that George B. Barrow, who last June was sentenced to fourteen years and ten months in state prison for participating in the kidnapping of Marion Clarke, is not insane as has been reported. Barrow, who has been ill, was much better Saturday, and will not be removed to an asylum.

His Skin Turning White.

St. Louis, Feb. 11.—James Tyler, a Negro in the St. Louis jail, is gradually turning white. The discovery was made by Dr. Kearney, who vaccinated the prisoners. He says that Tyler is afflicted with a peculiar and rare disease, and that in four years his skin will turn from its present coal black color to white. The change is attributed to microbes feeding on the pigment of the skin.

Followed His Partner's Example.

Springfield, Mass., Feb. 12.—William Metcalf, aged 61, a well known printer and publisher, committed suicide by shooting. For years he was the partner of Clark W. Bryan, the paper trade journalist, who shot himself dead two years ago.

Death of Benton C. Boone.

Clinton, Mo., Feb. 12.—Benton C. Boone, attorney general of the state in 1884 and formerly a member of the legislature, died at his home here of heart disease. He was born in 1833 in Calloway county, Missouri.

BOERS GAIN POINTS.

Successful in Several Encounters
With the British Forces.

The Boers Have Secured an Important
Position South of the Tugela
—The Theory of an Elaborate
Feint Has Been Exploded.

Rensburg, Feb. 10.—The Boers outflanked the British here yesterday. A considerable force of the enemy was threatening the British communications between Rensburg and Slingersfontein, 12 miles away, and during a reconnaissance by some Inniskillings and 20 Australians from Slingersfontein the Boers were discovered attempting to get a gun in position to shell the British camp.

The Australians, having come into very close contact with the enemy, took cover under a hill about 9,000 yards from the camp. Thereupon the Boers took up a position with a view of preventing their retirement. Some burghers got within 200 yards of the Australians and called upon them to surrender. They replied by fixing bayonets and shouting defiance.

Sergt. Edwards and two men made a dash, galloping under a hot fire, passed a number of hills held by the Boers, took word that the Australians were safe and confident of holding the enemy at bay and of getting out after dark, which eventually they did.

The Inniskillings prevented the enemy getting their guns in position. The Australians lost one man killed and three wounded.

The convoys have been successfully gotten to Slingersfontein, the British escorts having several brushes with parties of from 20 to 30 Boers infesting the region. Lieut. Col. Page, with a section of artillery and 150 horses, got one large convoy through by shelling the enemy out of the road.

The Boers also outflanked us on the west, placed a gun in position at Bastards Nek and fired on one of our outposts, driving off 1,000 sheep.

In Wednesday's brush two correspondents, Mr. Hales, of the London Daily News, and Mr. Lambie, of the Melbourne Age, fell behind. Mr. Hales, who was slightly wounded, was captured by the Boers, and Mr. Lambie was killed. The British took two prisoners.

Out of a patrol from the Jufontein, under Capt. Hamilton, composed of eight Tasmanians and eight of Gen. French's scouts, only two Tasmanians and two scouts returned. The others were captured by the Boers.

To-day the Boers shelled the British camp, but with little effect.

Modder River, Feb. 10.—Apparently the Boers have brought all their big guns from Mafeking to shell Kimberley.

Our naval guns shelled Magersfontein to-day, but the Boer guns were silent. It is supposed that the enemy have withdrawn their artillery. They are blowing up the permanent way beyond Morton Siding.

The Boers still man their trenches, but their numbers are apparently reduced. The bulk of their force has gone to Kimberley or toward our flank.

The Highlanders returned last night. Before returning they found the bodies of 12 Boers. They believe the losses of the enemy were heavier than those of the British, because it is known that, in addition to the dead Boers found, several had been buried.

Lord Roberts is here. Upon appearing before the troops Friday he was enthusiastically cheered. He visited the camp of the Highland brigade this morning and complimented Gen. MacDonald and his men on the steady conduct at Koodoosberg drift.

London, Feb. 12.—The Pietermaritzburg correspondent of the Daily Mail, telegraphing Sunday, says:

"The Boers have occupied Bloy's farm, south of the Tugela, which is under an hour's ride from Chieveley and have turned the homestead into a hospital."

"On the farm are hills commanding both bridges over the Tugela, as well as Forts Wylie and Molyneux, and from which a view of Bulwana and Ladysmith is obtainable."

"There is much apprehension here regarding the Boer movements, and the authorities are on the alert."

The latest dispatches from the front showing the real reasons for Gen. Buller's retirement, and his intention to try again, quite destroy the comforting and ingenious theory that the movement was an elaborate feint to facilitate the main advance of Lord Roberts, a theory which obtained acceptance largely because of Mr. Buller's misleading statement to parliament. These seemingly useless reticences and prevarications on the part of the government and the war office are beginning to be criticised severely.

Durban, Feb. 12.—It is rumored here that Gen. Joubert is marching with a column of 6,000 men to outflank Gen. Buller.

Frere Camp, Feb. 12.—All is quiet here. The British troops are resting and the Boers are inactive.

Bad Outlook for the Gate City.

New York, Feb. 12.—The sea is growing rougher, and the Gate City is still fast aground off East Moriches, L. I., where she struck on Thursday night. The outlook is considered bad now. Sixteen men of the crew were brought ashore so as to make the work of taking off the remainder in case of immediate danger as easy as possible. The men landed in the breeches buoy. Capt. Googognes, of the Gate City, and 20 of his men remain on board assisting the wreckers in the endeavor to float the vessel.

A LESSON IN COURTESY.

Neat Rebuke Given a Haughty Woman
an by a Man in Working Clothes.

One afternoon a stylishly dressed woman boarded an Illinois Central train at Forty-seventh street. She sat down in the only vacant seat, beside a young workman, who was reading a book. The woman wore blue overalls and carried a dinner pail. The woman drew herself together imperiously and elevated her eyebrows. In getting her ticket she dropped her purse, and the young fellow picked it up and offered it to her politely. She took it, without a word of thanks. All the way up town she fidgeted and behaved so unpleasantly that the attention of the other passengers in the car was attracted to the little drama.

When the train stopped at Randolph street the woman, in crowding past, knocked the book from the workman's hands.

"I beg your pardon," she condescended.

"Not at all, ma'am," responded the young fellow, cheerfully. "It's quite in keeping with the rest of your conduct."

And everybody thought it served her right.—Chicago Inter Ocean.

Owned It All.

John I. Blair in his earlier days owned a western railroad along the route of which he established a series of lunchrooms at which employees of the road were to be charged 50 cents and all passengers 75 cents. Mr. Blair once dined at one of these places, and, concluding his meal, laid down a half-dollar. "Hold on!" cried the cashier, "you don't belong to this road." "I know that," replied Mr. Blair, "the road belongs to me."—Chicago Chronicle.

THE NEWS is grateful for the following friendly expressions from Kentucky editors:

Our valued contemporary, THE BOURBON NEWS, Friday entered on its 20th year. It is one of the best newspapers in Central Kentucky, and we wish it a large measure of success as it justly deserves.—[Kentucky New-Citizen.]

THE BOURBON NEWS, one of the leading county papers in the State, has just entered its 20th year, and is brighter and better than ever.—[Cynthiana Log Cabin.]

THE BOURBON NEWS, one of the neatest and best newspapers in Kentucky, last week entered on its 20th year.—[Maysville Ledger.]

THE BOURBON NEWS scored a score of years with its issue of last Friday. THE NEWS is conducted on "high pints" and enjoys and deserves a fine business.—[Paris Reporter.]

GETTING AGED.—THE BOURBON NEWS, of Paris, one of the best semi-weeklies in the State, has just entered upon the 20th year of its existence. Walter Champ and Swift Champ are its editors and owners. During the past nineteen years THE NEWS has never missed an issue, on account of a holiday or other cause, and has only been an hour or so late on half a dozen occasions.—[Louisville Times.]

News of The Legislatures.

The Democratic House convened yesterday at Louisville and a concurrent resolution which had passed the Senate was presented, calling upon "the Hon. W. S. Taylor to at once withdraw the militia and the force of armed men which he has gathered about him in the State House and surrender the Executive office to J. C. W. Beckham, the lawful Governor of Kentucky." Under the rules the resolution went over for one day.

The concurrent resolution ordered Saturday was adopted providing for the appointment of a committee of three Representatives and two Senators to investigate the conditions at Frankfort as to the "feel" and advisability of resuming legislative sessions at the Capitol.

The Republican Senate and House convened yesterday at Frankfort, and both appointed committees to notify Gov. Taylor that they were ready for business.

All but four companies of soldiers have been withdrawn from Frankfort and they may be sent home to day. The Democratic legislators will not go to Frankfort while the troops are there.

It is said that the Legislature will be asked to appropriate $100,000 reward for the detection of the assassin of Gov. Goebel.

Let's stir up At Louisville.

Both branches of the Legislature met Friday in Louisville, but only the Senate had a quorum. Senator Thomas introduced the following resolution which was adopted:

Resolution of respect to William Goebel, thirty-first Governor of the Commonwealth of Kentucky:

Resolved, that inasmuch as in the history of mankind we place first and highest those who sacrifice most for their fellowmen, we claim for William Goebel, the artisan, the son, the brother, the lawyer and the statesman, a niche high in the temple of fame. As the struggling boy, the working man, the accomplished lawyer and the able legislator, all his aims had for their end the good of others. He spared not himself. Battering with poverty, his success was for his family; struggling with his profession, he made glad the hearts of widow and orphan, wrestling from corporate greed some compensation for the given up in duty.

As the Christ life was sacrificed to class hatred conspiring with imperial power, so the life of William Goebel paid forfeit to a conspiracy of monopolistic power with modern imperialism. The Democratic party of the State and nation has lost a leader, but he has left as a heritage a watchword to all who would be true public servants: "Be brave and fearless and loyal to the great common people," a fitting epitaph for his monument, and words to be cherished in all honest hearts to the end of our national life.

Mr. Bryan's Correspondence.

WHILE in Washington, W. J. Bryan told some of his friends that for the past two years his mail had averaged 2,000 letters per week, says the Louisville Times. During January, this year, the average was about 4,000 letters per week, the increase being probably due to increased interest in Mr. Bryan on account of the approach of the Presidential campaign. He thinks that his large correspondence enables him to keep in closer touch with the people than would be possible by any other means. Imperialism is the great burden of letters he is now receiving, he says. It overshadows the trust question and is more written about than free silver.

From Spring Station they go to Lexington, thence to Washington and New York, and will sail in a few days for Naples, Italy. Lanceford Talbott Assigns.

Lanceford Talbott, of North Middletown, surviving partner of the firm of W. S. & L. Talbott, assigned Saturday to attorney C. M. Thomas, of this city, for the benefit of the firm's creditors. The creditors will be paid in full, and the assignment was made as the quickest and most economical way to settle up the firm's business. The estate consists of 260 acres of Bourbon land and a lot of personal property. The friends of Mr. Lanceford Talbott hope that after the business is settled he will have a considerable estate in his possession.

Easter Sunday.

EASTER comes on April 15th this year. Lent commences forty days earlier. The date for Easter is unusually late, and in fact is within one week of the latest possible date for the feast. The setting of the date is by means of the Paschal moon, and on account of it, it is impossible for it to come earlier than March 21st or later than April 25th. The ladies will thus be enabled to wear their bonnets in better weather than usual, and there will be a greater abundance of flowers for decorating churches on account of the lateness of the season.

Examining Trial Postponed.

The examining trial of Edgar Sharon, who shot Blanton Green last Monday night, was called in Judge Webb's court Saturday morning, but was postponed at the request of County Attorney Dandon until the 21st on account of Green's condition. Judge Webb overruled Attorney McVey's motion for a reduction of bail, which had been fixed at $1,000. Sharon gave bond soon after the trial and was released from jail. John Cox, of Newtown precinct, is being held in $1,000 bond on the charge of being an accessory to the shooting.

Green is getting along nicely, being able to sit up a short time Sunday and yesterday. He is being waited on by Dr. Farley.

An Ex-Bourbon's Boom.

JOHN W. KELLER, formerly of this city, who is now Commissioner of Charities in New York, and is also President of the New York Democratic Club and a close friend to Richard Croker, is being quietly boomed by his New York friends for Vice President on the ticket with Mr. Bryan. His claims would have strong backing and Paris would be glad to see her former son receive the honor.

A Montana Legacy.

Mrs. Omar Lytle, of East Paris, wife of Omar Lytle, an attaché of THE NEWS, has received word from an attorney that she will receive quite a neat sum of money from an estate which has been reclaimed in Montana. A recent decision of the court sustains the claim of seven heirs for $50,000 from the estate. One of the heirs gets $25,000 and the remainder is to be divided equally. All of the heirs except Mrs. Lytle live in Mayville.

"Judge" and "Jurors" Fined.

Claysville, our wicked suburb, was the scene of a unique trial Friday. Junius Jackson, a colored youth suspected of stealing coal from Lizzie Jackson's grocery, in Claysville, was enticed into the grocery and was held for trial on the charge of petit larceny. Emmett Kirk acted as Judge and six colored men served as jurors. The culprit was declared guilty and his punishment fixed at twenty lashes with a buggy whip where they would do the most good. Jackson was made to embrace a beer keg with his arms and legs and the "judge" wielded the whip with vengeance. The prisoner then had warrants sworn out against the entire party, and Saturday morning Judge Purnell fined the "judge" and two "jurors"—Pek Alexander and Lewis Cage—$15 each.

Joe Jackson, colored, charged with stealing brass kettles and breaking them up to sell for old brass, was given twenty-six days on the rock-pile.

Imperial spectacles and eyeglasses have perfect lenses, always perfectly centred and made of purest material, set in frames of the highest elasticity and consequently of greatest durability, united with the utmost lightness and elegance. When both frames and lenses are scientifically fitted by Dr. C. H. Bowen's system they always give satisfaction for they are perfect. Never buy cheap spectacles, nor of men who do not know how to fit them. You will get poorly adjusted spectacles, or poor, imperfect lenses, and are better off without any glasses than with either of these defects. Buy imperial spectacles of a reliable, skillful dealer, and they will last longer without change and be cheapest in the end.

We have engaged the services of Dr. C. H. Bowen who will visit our store on the second and last Thursdays of each month and invite all to call and have their eyes examined, for which there is no charge. Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded.

Three Valentines

JACK'S grandpapa to grandmamma
Once sent a piece of folly—
"Twas long ago, when he was 'Jack,'
And she, of course, was 'Dolly.'
Saint Valentine inspired the rhyme
He put within the letter.

And even helped him choose the seal.
Two hearts bound with a fetter.
"The rose is red, the violet's blue,
Sugar is sweet, and so are you."
And Jack's papa sent to mamma,
When he was just eleven,
The same rhyme for a valentine,
She being aged seven.
The envelope was tinted pink,
And up within one corner,
With bow and arrows, wings and all,
Sat Cupid, little scorpion.
"The rose is red, the violet's blue,
Sugar is sweet, and so are you."

And Master Jack shot out last night
As swift as any rocket,
But not before I caught a glimpse
Of something in his pocket.
It was a letter—bless the boy!
And I knew in a minute,
The next day was Saint Valentine's,
And so, just what was in it.
"The rose is red, the violet's blue,
Sugar is sweet, and so are you."
—Eleanor A. Hunter, in Golden Days.

A SPINSTER'S VALENTINE.

LITTLE Joey Joyce came hurrying up the path of gravel and cinders leading from the gate to Miss Dryden's front door. Miss Hetty had seen him come in at the gate and she had opened the door before he had reached it.
"Well, my faithful little mail carrier," a spinster, living alone in her little white and green house at the end of the long village street. Had she been given to such vulgar boasting she could have told her friends that she had had "plenty of chances." Indeed, it would have taken all of the fingers and even the thumb of her plump right hand for Hetty Dryden to have "counted up" the offers she had had right there in Hebron during the past 20 years. More than one elderly widower had gone disconsolately from her gate during even the last five years, chagrined and rebellious because Miss Hetty firmly, but kindly, declined to change her name.

The last rejected suitor had been Hiram Dyer, a widower of but eight months and the possessor of eight "awful" children who had undoubtedly been largely instrumental in worrying and wearying their poor mother into her grave.

"Mebbe this is from Hiram Dyer," Hetty Dryden said, as she snipped off the end of the envelope containing the valentine. "He said I'd hear from him again. If I felt sure it came from him, I'd send it back. I don't want him nor his valentine, either."

The valentine that Miss Hetty drew from the envelope was not made of paper lace and tinsel and embossed doves and flowers. It was instead a square-folded sheet of blue lined note paper, on which was written in an evidently disguised hand:

"This night at eight,
For to know his fate,
Your valentine will wait
At your front gate.
If from your east window
A light doth shine,
He will enter in
To claim his valentine.
If all is dark,
He will go away,
Leaving forever unsaid
What he wants to say.
O, be not cruel nor unkind,
But let a light shine
For your valentine."

The flush in Hetty Dryden's cheeks deepened as she let the bit of paper fall to her lap.

"Such nonsense! I'd probably never hear the end of it if I was goose enough to really set a light in my east window. But I'm not going to. Seems to me I've seen writing like that before."

She held the sheet of paper out and looked at it quizzically, with her head twisted a little on one side.

"It doesn't seem possible that any man in his right mind would do anything so silly as to make up a jingle like that and send it to a woman, even if half that time, but the moment her eyes rested on it she said with conviction:

"It is the same."

Taking the book over to her work table and sitting down again, she laid the sheet of note paper down by the fly leaf on which the inscription was written.

"Yes, sir; Jared Lawson," she said, "you wrote them both. The capital letters are just alike in both of them, although you have tried to disguise your writing in your precious jingling poetry. I've found you out, you great goose, you!"

But there was a smile on her face and a kindly light in her eyes as she spoke the unflattering words.

Jared Lawson was proprietor of the only news or periodical stand in the town. He was a short, slightly portly man, rather bald, with a smooth, plump and kindly face. His blue eyes betokened honesty and sincerity, and he had almost womanly gentleness of spirit and manner. His 45 years had been full of deeds of kindness and the old ladies of Hebron were never tired of telling of how "awfully good" he had always been to his mother, who had been a feeble, fretful, exacting and complaining old body for years before her death.

It was held to be true that Jared had not married because he "couldn't leave mother," and because he very well knew that no woman could live happily with her.

The old lady had now been dead six months and Jared was living alone in the four rooms his mother and he had for years occupied above his store. It was a lonely and unsatisfactory life for a man of Jared's home-loving and strongly domestic instincts to lead.

"Poor Jared!" said Miss Hetty, as she read the jingling rhyme for the fourth time. "He must be dreadful lonesome since his mother died. He's a good man, Jared is. Any man who will be as good as he was to that fretful, trying old mother of his for 25 years is a mighty good man. I was there a lot during the old lady's last illness and he was wonderful how gentle and patient he was. And so he wants me for his valentine, does he? He certainly would be more comfortable here than in those four little rooms he's been batching in over his store. And I—well, I'll own up that I feel kind of lonely myself sometimes, and I—I—always liked Jared."

She sat for a long time with her hands crossed in her lap and a sweetly serious, almost wistful expression on her face.
At five minutes before eight a short, rather stout man was standing at Miss Hetty's gate looking toward the window in her east room. There was no light in the window.
"I'm an old fool to think a woman like her would set a light in her window for any man, as a hint for him to come in and propose to her," said the man to himself. "I wish I'd signed my name to my fool rhyme, or that I had the courage to go in. If there isn't a light in that window by eight o'clock I'll go in and own up that I sent her that valentine. A man that hasn't the courage to ask a woman to marry him, don't deserve her and—glory hallelujah!"

A bright ray of light came streaming across the snow from the window of the east room. Jared Lawson tugged at the gate, which did not open readily, and finally he climbed over the low fence and ran toward the door calling out like a happy child.

"Hetty! Hetty! O, Hetty!"
The door opened before he reached it and Hetty stood there in the light in a cherry colored gown and snowy white apron, a smile on her face and her eyes shining.

Jared's voice trembled and there was a suggestion of fear in it as he said:
"O, Hetty, it is I—Jared Lawson."

"I know it, Jared," said Hetty, laughingly.
"And you put that light in the window for me, Hetty?"

"For you, Jared."

"O, Hetty! God bless you, my—my—dear!"

He reached out his hand to clasp her own and to hold it to his lips. Then they went into the house together with the light of new-born love radiating from their hearts and faces.—Morris Wade, in Detroit Free Press.

PECULIARITIES OF STATES.

Some of the Physical Features for Which Certain Commonwealths Are Noted.

"Has it ever occurred to you," said the committeeman from Poweshiek, "that Iowa is the best watered state in the union and has less sterile land than any other?" No, it has not. Never thought of it. In fact, we don't know much about Iowa over here in the east. She gave us some clever men in Allison, Frank Hutton, postmaster general; George W. McCrary, secretary of war; James Harlan, secretary of the interior; George W. McCrary, secretary of war; Senator Gear and Gov. Kirkwood. Jeff Davis, a lieutenant in the United States army, thrashed a lot of white folk in Dubuque, and the Mormons settled at Council Bluffs. Another thing—Iowa passed a law prohibiting liquor dealers from making more than 33 per cent. profit on sales. What else is she famed for?

The Poweshiek's remark led to study of the physical peculiarities of several states. In proportion to size, Georgia has a great many more counties than any other state, the present number being 137, with promise of a new one to be named after Lieut. Brumby, Texas, with nearly four and a half times the area of the "cracker" state, has 244. Georgia has no lake, and her rivers and creeks are not above the average. Massachusetts has 208 ponds, 122 rivers and more coasts and harbors than any other state. She has more islands than any other state except Florida. Hard to believe, isn't it?

The average reader will be amazed to learn that little New Hampshire, with less than 10,000 square miles, has no less than 406 lakes and ponds, 154 brooks, 58 rivers and 294 mountains. This makes Iowa look small. Colorado, a big state, has 566 creeks. Texas has comparatively few rivers, lakes and creeks. Alabama has 663 creeks and 87 rivers. Iowa cannot approach that record. Minnesota has 222 lakes and 140 rivers. Pennsylvania, one of the biggest, richest states, has altogether only 16 rivers and not a creek. Kentucky, also a big state, has no creeks and only 23 rivers. Tennessee has 31 rivers and creeks all told. Indiana has 8 creeks, 2 lakes and 15 rivers. New York, a state of modest size, is well equipped with rivers, lakes, creeks, islands and mountains. Louisiana is nearly all rivers and bayous, and Florida is largely made up of creeks, islands, lakes and rivers.—N. Y. Press.

Sugar-Cane Paper. A mill is being built just south of New Orleans to convert into paper the stalks of sugar cane after the sugar has been extracted. There are from three to five million tons of bagasse, as the exhausted cane is called, turned out of the mills every year, and how to utilize it has been a problem to Louisiana planters for generations. In some mills it is used for fuel, but this has not been considered a profitable solution of the difficulty. Although several years ago the suggestion was made that bagasse would make a good material for the manufacture of paper as wood pulp, nothing practical was done until Gov. Warmoth recently started a paper mill as an annex to his sugar factory. A diffusion plant is used in these factories, and the cane is turned out in dry chips, which are in much better condition for paper manufacture than the soft crushed cane as it comes from the ordinary sugar factories. The success of Gov. Warmoth's venture will mean a new and profitable industry in the sugar-cane districts of the south.—N. Y. Ledger Monthly.

Wanted—A Corkscrew. The wine at the communion was put on the table in a black bottle, and on one occasion the cork had not been drawn. Mr. Bell, the vicar, turned to the intending communicants as they knelt at the rails, and asked: "Has any lady or gentleman a corkscrew?" The implement having been obtained (I fancy from the public house opposite, where stimulants were occasionally procured for the aged curate during the sermon), the services concluded.—"Memories," by C. Kegan Paul.

The Mystery of Dust at Sea.

It is a puzzling fact that the decks of sailing vessels show dust at night, even if they are washed in the morning, and no work is done during the day. This is like indigestion, which creeps on one unawares. However it comes, the only way to cure it is by the use of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, a remedy which never fails to cure dyspepsia in all its forms, as well as prevent malaria, fever and ague.

Cleanliness in the Dairy.

Cleanliness counts in no place for more than in the dairy. The milking should be done in a clean place; all vessels used should be washed morning and night in hot water with Ivory Soap, rinsed and well aired. Milk should never be kept in a cellar with vegetables, as an unpleasant taste will be imparted. Attention to these details will insure a supply of wholesome milk and butter. ELIZA R. PARKER.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube gets inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases of ten are caused by catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars free.

Sore Hands

Red, Rough Hands, Itching, Burning Palms, and Painful Finger Ends.

One Night Treatment

Soak the hands on retiring in a strong, hot, creamy lather of CUTICURA SOAP. Dry, and anoint freely with CUTICURA, the great skin cure and purest of emollients. Wear, during the night, old, loose kid gloves, with the finger ends cut off and air holes cut in the palms. For red, rough, chapped hands, dry, fissured, itching, feverish palms, with shapeless nails and painful finger ends, this treatment is simply wonderful, and points to a speedy cure of the most distressing cases when physicians and all else fail.

Sore Hands 8 Years Cured.

Pain So Intense Would Nearly Twist Fingers From Sockets. Hands Puffed Up Like a Toad. Water Ran Through Bandages to Floor. Had to Walk the Floor Until Would Fall Asleep. Fingers Would Peel Like an Onion. Doctors Could Not Cure.

Eight years ago I got sore hands, commencing with a burning sensation on my fingers and on top of the hand. When I rubbed them, you could see little white pimples. I felt like twisting my fingers out of their sockets. I had high fever, and cold chills ran over me, and so I kept it going until I was tired out. Nights, I had to walk the floor until I fell asleep. My hands peeled like an onion, the finger nails got loose, and the water ran out, and wherever there was a little pimple there the burning fire was—that happened at least ten times. I am running a blacksmith shop, horseshoeing, and I would not shut up the shop for anybody, but it was hard. My hands puffed up worse than a toad. When I drove horse nails, the water from my hands ran through the bandage, on to the floor. My customers refused to look at my hand. I had a friend take me to the doctor; he gave a solution of something to bathe my hands. I went to another doctor, I think, for a year. I found your advertisement in a Utica newspaper, and I got the CUTICURA remedies. As soon as I used them I began to gain, and after using a small quantity of them I was entirely cured. I would not take fifty dollars for a cake of CUTICURA SOAP if I could not get any more. I would not suffer any more as I did, for the whole country. Feb. 22, 1898. Millions of Women Use Cuticura Soap Exclusively for preserving, purifying, and beautifying the skin, for cleansing the scalp of crusts, scales, and dandruff, and the stopping of falling hair, for softening, whitening, and soothing red, rough, and sore hands, in the form of baths for annoying irritations, inflammations, and chafings, or too free or offensive perspiration, in the form of washes for ulcerative weaknesses, and for many sanative antiseptic purposes which readily suggest themselves to women, and especially mothers, and for all the purposes of the toilet, bath, and nursery. No amount of persuasion can induce those who have once used it to use any other, especially for preserving and purifying the skin, scalp, and hair of infants and children. CUTICURA SOAP combines delicate emollient properties derived from CUTICURA, the great skin cure, with the purest of cleansing ingredients and the most refreshing of scents. No other medicated soap ever compounded is to be compared with it for preserving, purifying, and beautifying the skin, scalp, hair, and hands. No other foreign or domestic toilet soap, however expensive, is to be compared with it for all the purposes of the toilet, bath, and nursery. Thus it combines in ONE SOAP at ONE PRICE, viz., TWENTY-FIVE CENTS, the best skin and complexion soap, the best toilet and baby soap in the world.

THE FIRST BABY.

Its Coming is Looked Forward to
With Both Joy and Fear and its Safe Arrival is Hailed With Pride and Delight by All.

The arrival of the first baby in the household is the happiest and most important event of married life. The young wife who is to become a mother delights to think of the happiness in store for her when the little one shall nestle upon her breast and let her hear it lisp the sweet and holy name, "mother." But her happy anticipation quickly vanishes when she realizes the terrible pain and suffering through which she must pass while bringing the little one into the world. An indescribable fear of the danger attendant upon the ordeal soon dissipates her joyfulness.

Thousands of women have learned by experience that there is absolutely no necessity for the sufferings which attend child-birth; they know that by the use of "Mother's Friend"—a scientific liniment—for a few weeks before the trying hour, expectant mothers can so prepare themselves for the final hour that the pain and suffering of the dreaded event are entirely obviated and it is safely passed through with comparatively little discomfort.

All women are interested, and especially expectant mothers who for the first time have to undergo this trial. In such a remedy; for they know the pain and suffering, to say nothing of the danger, which is in store for them. "Mother's Friend" is woman's greatest blessing, for it takes her safely through the severest ordeal of her life. Every woman should be glad to read the little book "Before Baby is Born," which contains information of great value to all. It will be sent free to any one who sends their address to The Bradford Regulator Co., Atlanta, Ga.

"I had dyspepsia for years. No medicine was so effective as Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. It gave immediate relief. Two bottles produced marvelous results," writes L. H. Warren, Albany, Wis. It digests what you eat and cannot fail to cure. W. T. Brooks.

"After doctors failed to cure pneumonia, I used One Minute Cough Cure and three bottles of it cured me. It is also the best remedy on earth for whooping cough. I cured my grandchild of the worst case," writes Jno. Berry, Logan, Pa. It is the only harmless remedy that gives immediate results. Cures coughs, colds, croup and throat and lung troubles. It prevents consumption. Children always like it. Mothers endorse it. W. T. Brooks.

"I had bronchitis every winter for years and no medicine gave me permanent relief till I began to take One Minute Cough Cure. I know it is the best cough medicine made," says J. Kootz, Corry, Pa. It quickly cures coughs, colds, croup, asthma, grippe and throat and lung troubles. It is the children's favorite remedy. Cures quickly. W. T. Brooks.

Question Answered.

Ys August Flower still has the largest sale of any medicine in the civilized world. Your mothers, and grandmothers, never thought of using anything else for indigestion or biliousness. Doctors were scarce, and they seldom heard of Appendicitis, Nervous Prostration or Heart failure, etc. They used August Flower to clean out the system and stop fermentation of undigested food, regulate the action of the liver, stimulate the nervous and organic action of the system, and that is all they took when feeling dull and had with headaches and other aches. You only need a few doses of Green's August Flower, in liquid form, to make you satisfied there is nothing serious the matter with you. Sold by dealers in all civilized countries. oct-27-ly

John Durr, Poseyville, Ind., says: "I never use anything as good as One Minute Cough Cure. We are never without it." Quickly breaks up coughs and colds. Cures all throat and lung troubles. Its use will prevent consumption. Pleasant to take. W. T. Brooks.

Scrofula to Consumption.

Any one predisposed to Scrofula can never be healthy and vigorous. This taint in the blood naturally drifts into Consumption. Being such a deep-seated blood disease, Swift's Specific is the only known cure for Scrofula, because it is the only remedy which can reach the disease.

Scrofula appeared on the head of my little grandchild when only six months old. Shortly after breaking out it spread rapidly all over her body. The sores would peel off on the slightest touch, and the odor that would arise made the atmosphere of the room sickening and unbearable. The disease next attacked the eyes, and we feared she would lose her sight. Eminent physicians from the surrounding country were consulted, but could do nothing to relieve the little innocent, and gave it as their opinion that the case was hopeless and impossible to save the child's eyesight. It was then that we decided to try Swift's Specific. That medicine at once made a speedy and complete cure. She is now a young lady, and has never had a sign of the disease to return.

Scrofula is an obstinate blood disease, and is beyond the reach of the average blood medicine. Swift's Specific is the only remedy equal to such deep-seated diseases; it goes down to the very foundation and forces out every taint. It is purely vegetable, and is the only blood remedy guaranteed to contain no mercury, potash or other mineral substance whatever. Books mailed free by Swift Specific Company, Atlanta, Georgia.

An Absentminded Professor.
I have a story of a gentleman now engaged in educational work which, I think, somewhat remarkable and is also quite true. This gentleman was once professor of mathematics in a fine New England college. He was greatly interested in the work and devoted himself so wholly to it that a natural tendency which he had to absentmindedness became much accentuated.

One day when he had guests at dinner and was helping them to fish from a platter he took a plate bottom side up, put a fish on the bottom of the plate and handed it thus to one of the guests. There was a laugh at once, and his wife said, "My dear, if you absentmindedness has gone so far that you are serving people food on the bottoms of plates, I shall insist on your resigning your professorship."

She did insist on it, and he resigned and went into another and more general field of teaching. He is still a little inclined to be forgetful—like some of the rest of us—but he has never since served food on the bottom of a plate.—Boston Transcript.

His Answer Was Reassuring.
Mgt. Calino, the simple hearted and ingenious Frenchman, happened to be riding in a train in the same compartment with a lady who was in constant fear of a smashup.

At every sudden stop, every jar, every sound of the bell or whistle, she cried out:

"Oh! Oh! Have we run off the track? Is it a collision? Are we going to be killed?"

Calino paid no attention, but remained wrapped in solemn silence. Presently the lady said to him:

"And you, sir, aren't you afraid of railroad accidents?"

"Not I, madame," answered Calino reassuringly. "It has been foretold that I am to die on the guillotine!"

The nervous woman went into hysterics and had to be removed from the train at the next station.—Youth's Companion.

At the Theater.

Fuddy—What do you laugh at that old joke for? When I told it to you three months ago, you didn't even smile, and now you laugh at it as though you would die.

Daddy—Yes, I know; I paid to get in here, and I'm bound to make the most of my money's worth.—Boston Transcript.

Abusing His Privileges.

"Dadber says he is wedded to his art."

"He evidently thinks he is, or he wouldn't mistreat her so shamefully."—Chicago Record.

Their First Steps.

"A man goes wrong," said the social sage, "from pure cussedness; a woman out of mere curiosity."—Philadelphia North American.

If all the money in the world were divided equally among the people, each person would get about $30.

Kissing the hands of great men was a Grecian custom.

Geo. Barbee, Mondota, Va., says: "Nothing did me so much good as Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. One dose relieved me, a few bottles cured me." It digests what you eat and always cures dyspepsia. W. T. Brooks.
